

It is an objective of the State of California to achieve a drug-free state work place. Any applicant for state employment will be expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of illegal drugs is inconsistent with the law of the state, the rules governing civil service, and the special trust placed in public servants.

CALIFORNIA STATE GOVERNMENT - An equal opportunity employer to all regardless of race, color, creed, national origin, ancestry, sex, marital status, disability, medical condition, religious or political affiliation, age or sexual orientation.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMITTANCE TO THE EXAMINATION:

NOTE: All applicants must meet the education and/or experience requirements for this examination by the final filing date. It is your responsibility to make sure you meet the education and/or experience requirements stated below. Your signature on your application indicates that you have read, understood, and possess the basic qualifications required.

Qualifying experience may be combined on a proportional basis if the requirements stated below include more than one pattern and are distinguished as either I, "or" II, "or" III, etc. For example, candidates possessing qualifying experience amounting to 50% of the required time of Pattern I and additional experience amounting to 50% of the required time of Pattern II may be admitted to the examination as meeting 100% of the overall experience requirement.

Either I

Experience: Six months of experience which must have been in responsible capacities involving the development, implementation or practice of equal employment and/or fair housing in one or a combination of the following:

1. As a representative of an organization engaged in promoting equal opportunity for protected groups, such as ethnic minorities, women, the physically handicapped, senior citizens, etc. Or
2. In community organization work, social group work, or other comparable experience in the human relations, industrial relations, or housing industry fields. Or
3. As a labor or management representative with substantial responsibility for the promotion and implementation of fair employment and/or fair housing practices within a trade, industry or organization. AND

Education: Equivalent to graduation from college. (Additional qualifying experience may be substituted for the required education on a year-for-year basis.) (Registration as a senior in a recognized institution will admit applicants who have applicable experience to the examination, but they must produce evidence of graduation or its equivalent before they can be considered eligible for appointment.)

Or II

Six months of experience performing the duties of a Management Services Technician, Range B, in the Department of Fair Employment and Housing.

Or III

Experience: One year of experience in the Department of Fair Employment and Housing performing duties at a level of responsibility at least comparable to those of an Office Services Supervisor I or and Office Technician. AND

Education: Completion of 12 semester units or 18 quarter units of college level course work in economics, labor law, urban sociology, or related fields. (Applicants who have completed at least six semester units will be admitted to the examination, but they must produce evidence of completion of the full requirement before they can be considered eligible for appointment.)

SPECIAL PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS: Ability to function in sensitive areas in a tactful and judicious manner; willingness to work irregular hours and to travel widely within an assigned area; demonstrated objectivity and emotional stability.

THE POSITION

This is the entry and first journey level class. Incumbents, under close supervision, typically receive formal instruction and on-the-job training assignments which involve the less complex or more routine phases of the discrimination complaint process. As incumbents become more experienced and skillful, they receive more responsible assignments and/or increased independence.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION: This examination will consist of a qualifications appraisal interview only. In order to obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum rating of 70% must be attained in the interview.

In order to obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum rating of 70% must be attained.

Scope:

In addition to evaluating the candidate's relative abilities as demonstrated by quality and breadth of experience, emphasis will be on measuring competitively, relative to job demands, each candidate's

- A. Knowledge of:
1. Intergroup relations and problems of protected groups such as ethnic minorities, women, physically handicapped, senior citizens, etc.
 2. Methods and techniques of promoting equal opportunity; investigation and interviewing techniques.
 3. Current labor, employment and housing conditions and trends.
 4. Methods of compiling and presenting data in studies related to the Department of Fair Employment and Housing's jurisdiction.
- B. Ability to:
1. Interpret and apply California's Fair Employment and Housing laws and rules and regulations of the Fair Employment and Housing Commission.
 2. Analyze data.
 3. Communicate effectively.
 4. Deal creatively, tactfully, and effectively with sensitive problems of civil rights law enforcement.
 5. Analyze situations accurately and take effective action.
 6. Establish and maintain cooperative relationships with those contacted in the work.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION: The list will be abolished 24 months after it is established unless the needs of the service and conditions of the list warrant a change in this period. The resulting eligible list will be used to fill vacancies in Los Angeles Offices.

Veterans' preference credit will be granted in this examination.

GENERAL INFORMATION

It is the candidate's responsibility to contact Human Resources at (916) 478-7228 three days prior to the written test date if he/she has not received his/her notice.

For an examination without a written feature, it is the candidate's responsibility to contact Human Resources at (916) 478-7228 three weeks after the final filing date if he/she has not received a progress notice.

If a candidate's notice of oral interview or performance test fails to reach him/her prior to the day of the interview due to a verified postal error, he/she will be rescheduled upon written request.

Applications are available at State Personnel Board offices, local offices of the Employment Development Department and the Department noted on the front.

If you meet the requirements stated on the reverse, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described on this bulletin will be compared with the performance of others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

The State Personnel Board reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service law and rules, and all competitors will be notified.

Examination Locations: When a written test is part of the examination, it will be given in such places in California as the number of candidates and conditions warrant. Ordinarily, oral interviews are scheduled in Sacramento, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. However, locations of interviews may be limited or extended as conditions warrant.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) subdivisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multidepartmental promotional, 4) servicewide promotional, 5) departmental open, and 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on the bulletin.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, ability to work cooperatively with others, and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history, and fingerprinting may be required.

Interview Scope: If an interview is conducted, in addition to the scope described on the other side of this bulletin, the panel will consider education, experience, personal development, personal traits, and fitness. In appraising experience, more weight will be given to the breadth and recency of pertinent experience and evidence of the candidate's ability to accept and fulfill increasing responsibilities than to the length of his/her experience. Evaluation of a candidate's personal development will include consideration of his/her recognition of his/her own training needs, his/her plans for self-development, and the progress he/she has made in his/her efforts toward self-development.

Promotional Examinations Only: Competition is limited to employees who have a permanent civil service appointment. Under certain circumstances, other employees may be allowed to compete in promotional examinations. State Personnel Board Rules 233, 234, 235, 235.2, and 237 contain provisions regarding civil service status and eligibility for promotional examinations. These rules may be reviewed at departmental Human Resources offices or at the Information Counter of State Personnel Board offices.

High School Equivalence: Equivalency to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Educational Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the candidate is considered to have an education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
